December, 6th

Thanks to Birmingham's time management techniques course, I now have more realistic goals and know how to use time effectively. So, I believe I will be less busy and less stressed but more productive and more organized. I have a recipe for success. Here are my decisions for a new start:

Mon: I am going to list my tasks in order of importance. Then, I am going to start keeping a to-do list with deadlines.

Tue: I am going to clean my room and tidy my desk. I am going to remove the games on my smartphone. I am going to try to say 'no' to all-time wasters.

Wed: I am going to make a timetable and plan regular breaks to refresh my mind.

Thu: I am going to read books to learn from mistakes and to think positively. I am not going to take a negative attitude towards failure anymore.

Fri: I am going to work out in a gym near my house at 3 p.m. on Fridays.

Sat & Sun: A refreshing weekend with my books and friends...
