Hi Tracey,

I am back from a long journey on two continents. They are Europe and America. I went on this journey to see the world's 5 greenest countries. The journey was amazing. I came back with lots of unforgettable memories and photos. Of course, everything was not perfect during the journey. I had some problems, as well. For example, I broke one of my toes while climbing a small mountain in Switzerland. It hurt a lot and no one was there to give me a hand. I felt desperate. After some time in the forest, I saw a beautiful hut. There was a married couple in it. They gave me a bed and took care of me for two days. When my toe was OK, I kept walking in the green mountains. Anyway, you are going to see all the photos soon.

Big Hugs

John
