Answer the following question according to the paragraph.

Hi Tracey,

I am back from a long journey on two continents. They are Europe and America. I went on this journey to see the world's 5 greenest countries. The journey was amazing. I came back with lots of unforgettable memories and photos. Of course, everything was not perfect during the journey. I had some problems, as well. For example, I broke one of my toes while climbing a small mountain in Switzerland. It hurt a lot and no one was there to give me a hand. I felt desperate. After some time in the forest, I saw a beautiful hut. There was a married couple in it. They gave me a bed and took care of me for two days. When my toe was OK, I kept walking in the green mountains. Anyway, you are going to see all the photos soon.

Big Hugs

John

The Dog and the Bone

A dog was holding a juicy bone in his jaws while he was crossing a bridge over a brook. When he looked down into the water, he saw another dog below. It was holding a bigger and juicier bone. He wanted to have it, jumped into the brook to snatch the bigger bone and let go of his own. He quickly learned, of course, that the bigger bone was just a reflection, and so, he ended up with nothing to eat.

- A) What was the dog doing when he saw another dog with a bigger bone?
- B) Why did the dog let go of his own bone?
- C) Was the dog with a bigger bone real?
- D) How big was the bone in the brook?
- E) Why did the dog want to jump into the river?
