Choose the correct option to complete the statement according to the dialogue.

Bill: When I was a child, my grandfather used to tell me wonderful stories. I wish I could remember them. If I remember them, I will tell them to my children.

Alice: Yes, dear. Unfortunately, you can't. I remember when you told me the story about the lion that wants to be a human. You confused the whole story.

Bill: Oh, yes! It was one of the hardest stories, and my memory is weak. When a story is full of adventures like that one, I can never be sure what happened first.

Alice: Maybe, it would be better to read stories to the kids from storybooks.

It's understood from the dialogue that

- A) Alice likes listening to stories that Bill tells her.
- B) Bill wants to read good stories to his grandchildren.
- C) Bill's grandfather wasn't the best storyteller in the family.
- D) Bill is having trouble remembering the chronological order of the events in stories.
- E) Alice is trying to be a good friend and not hurt Bill's feelings about his grandfather.

Soru 9:

Choose the correct option to complete the statement according to the passage.

When Andy was young, he always dreamed of being a lead singer of a band. To make his dream come true, he decided to take vocal training. He realised that there were many apps and online courses for that. He registered for some of them and started his training. While he was improving his vocal skills, he was also searching for bands that were looking for a singer. He was lucky because he could arrange the studio practices with three different bands. He was so successful that all the bands wanted to work with him. He made his decision and sang with the band in many concerts.

It can be understood from the passage that

- A) the online courses didn't help Andy to improve himself.
- B) Andy wanted to play the guitar for bands.
- C) Andy tried hard to be the lead singer of a band.
- D) not all the bands he practised with wanted to hire him.
- E) Andy could practise only with a band.
