

Reading Activity

1A. Scan the text and match the words with their definitions.
(E10.7.R1.)

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. raw | a. to cook food in an oven using dry heat. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. bake | b. one of the foods that you use to make a particular dish. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. spicy | c. not cooked. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. ingredient | d. having a strong, hot flavor (like chili peppers). |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 5. boil | e. to cook food in very hot, bubbling water. |

Let's discover some delicious tastes from different countries!

Italian cuisine is very popular because it is both traditional and tasty. It usually has simple recipes with only a few ingredients. The most common ingredients are tomatoes, basil, mozzarella cheese, and olive oil. Pizza and pasta are the most famous dishes, and they are often baked in an oven.

Japanese cuisine is known for being very healthy. Meals are prepared with fresh and seasonal ingredients. They do not use many spices. Most dishes are just boiled or eaten raw, like sushi. Sushi is made with rice and seafood. It is important to use fresh fish.

Mexican cuisine is famous for being spicy and colourful. It has a very old history. Corn is the most common ingredient in recipes. They also use beans, avocados, and hot chili peppers. The most common cooking methods are frying and grilling. Tacos are a well-known street food in Mexico.

There are so many different flavours to try around the world!

1B. Read the text and complete the table below.

	Popular Dishes	Main Ingredients	Cooking Methods
Italian Cuisine	1.	2.	3.
Japanese Cuisine	4.	5.	6.
Mexican Cuisine	7.	8.	9.

1C. Read the text again and answer the questions.

- What are the main ingredients used in Italian dishes?
- How are Japanese meals usually cooked?
- What is the most common ingredient in Mexican recipes?

Listening Activity

2. Listen to the "Morning Chef" program and number the steps from 1 to 6 in the correct order. (T.10.7.1)

- A. ☐ Pour the beaten eggs over the potatoes and onions.
- B. ☐ Heat the olive oil and fry the chopped potatoes.
- C. ☐ Fold the omelette in half and serve it warm.
- D. ☐ Add the onions and cook until they soften.
- E. ☐ Turn the uncooked side over carefully.
- F. ☐ Cook the egg mixture until the bottom begins to brown.

Reading Activity

3. Read the text and complete the diagram. (E10.7.R2.)

Festivals for Every Taste

People around the world love to celebrate their culture. There are three main types of festivals.

First, there are Food Festivals. For example, the "Giant Omelette Festival" in France. At this festival, thousands of eggs are broken into a huge pan to make a giant lunch for the village.

Second, there are Seasonal Festivals. These celebrate nature. The "Tulip Festival" in Istanbul is a great example. Millions of flowers are planted in parks to welcome the spring.

Finally, there are Art Festivals. The "Sand Sculpture Festival" in Portugal is very famous. Artists use sand to build amazing statues and castles on the beach.

FESTIVALS FOR EVERY TASTE

1.

2. Example:

3.

4. Example:

5.

6. Example:

Writing Activity

4. Write down a short paragraph about your favourite festival by answering all the questions below. (K.E10.7.W1.)

Guiding Questions

- Name: What is the festival called?
- Time: When is it held?
- Place: Where is it celebrated?
- Activity: What do people do?
- Reason: Why do people celebrate it?
- Feeling: How do people feel?

Reading Activity

5. Read the dialogue and complete the table. (E10.7.R2.)

Emma: Ali, the air smells amazing here! What is that sweet scent?

Ali: It is the smell of orange blossoms, Emma. It means spring is here, and it is time for our favourite event: The International Orange Blossom Carnival. It is held here in Adana every year in April.

Emma: That sounds exciting. What is the main purpose of the festival?

Ali: We celebrate the blossoming of the orange trees. It is a symbol of friendship.

Emma: So, what happens during the carnival?

Ali: Oh, the whole city changes! First, the streets are decorated with orange items. Thousands of people wear colourful costumes. A huge parade is organized in the city center.

Emma: Are there any musical events?

Ali: Of course. Concerts are performed by famous singers.

Emma: And food?

Ali: You are in Adana! The world-famous Adana Kebab is served everywhere. Also, various treats made with oranges are prepared just for the festival.

Emma: I can't wait to see the parade!

Name of the Event	Location (City)	Date / Season	Main Purpose	Food & Drink

6. Read the festival brochure and answer the questions.

PIZZAFEST - THE ULTIMATE PIZZA CELEBRATION

The Ultimate Celebration in the Birthplace of Pizza!

Location: Naples, Italy

Time: Every Year in September (11-Day Celebration)

Purpose: To celebrate the birthplace of pizza and taste the most famous pizzas

Main Events & Highlights

- Tasting delicious traditional pizzas
- Enjoying events in the city for 11 days
- Trying recipes with tomatoes, basil, and mozzarella

- What is the name of the festival?
- When is it held?
- Where is it celebrated?
- What do people do?
- Why do people celebrate it?

Speaking Activity

7. Use the speech card below to introduce a festival and describe the process of celebration.

Speech Card Festival Guide

1. Introduction

Hello! Today, I'm going to talk about a famous festival called It is a traditional event that is held in (city/country). It takes place every year in (month/season).

2. Purpose & Atmosphere

People celebrate this festival because

During the festival, the atmosphere is usually (e.g., joyful, energetic, colorful).

3. The Process of Celebration

First,

Then,

Next,

Finally, the celebration ends when

4. Traditions & Preparations

The streets are (e.g., decorated with lights/flowers).

Traditional costumes are

Special food, like, is served to guests.

Take notes — get ready — stand up and speak!