New Message

Hello! My name is Rose Miller, and I'm a new 11th grader at Greenwood High School. I saw the posters about the school clubs on the noticeboard and decided to apply for the creative writing club. I'm friendly and curious. Writing has always been one of my strongest interests, and I've been keeping a blog for the last three years. I enjoy expressing my ideas in stories and articles. In addition, I like reading books and magazines because they give me inspiration for my writing. I'm also into gardening. Spending time with plants helps me relax and think more creatively. I'd really love to be a member of the school's creative writing club. I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,
Rose
