THE ANCIENT CITY OF EPHESUS

Ephesus is located near Selçuk in İzmir, Türkiye. It was founded by the Ancient Greeks in the 10th century BC. It became one of the most important trade centers of the ancient world.

The city was home to many impressive structures. The Temple of Artemis was considered one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The Great Theater, which could hold more than 24,000 people, was used for performances and public meetings. The Library of Celsus, constructed in 117 AD, was one of the richest libraries of its time.

Ephesus was included in the UNESCO World Heritage List in 2015. Today, it attracts millions of visitors every year because of its well-preserved ruins and great historical value.
