

UNIT 1

E12.1.R1. Students will be able to infer people's music preferences from their ideas about music in a reading text.

(Bu kazanım için 2 soru hazırladım. İstedığınızı seçebilirsiniz.)

Question 1. Read the text and answer the questions. (K.E12.1.R1.)

Martin and Jane like different types of music. Martin thinks classical music is calm and helps him relax. He feels peaceful when he listens to it. Jane enjoys pop music because it is fun and makes her happy. She thinks that pop music has fast beats and makes her feel excited.

Music can affect our feelings in different ways. Some use music to relax, while others use it to feel more energy. In the end, what matters is how the music makes each person feel. Everyone has their own favorite type of music.

1. What type of music does Martin like?

2. Why does Jane enjoy pop music?

3. What are two reasons people listen to music?

Question 2. Read the text and answer the questions. (K.E12.1.R1.)

PEOPLE'S MUSIC CHOICES

Sophie

"I love listening to slow and emotional songs. The lyrics are meaningful, and they help me relax after a long day. In my opinion, music should touch people's hearts."

David

"I enjoy songs with strong rhythm and fast beats. I think they make me feel alive and full of energy. Don't you think dancing to music is the best way to have fun? My favorite band is BTS."

Maya

"I like songs that tell stories about life and people. I believe acoustic music is the most natural and real. According to me, Ed Sheeran is one of the best songwriters ever."

Question 1. Read the email and answer the questions. (K.E12.2.R2.)

New Message

Dear Robert,

Let me tell you about my best friend, Steve. We have been good friends since middle school. Steve is 25 years old. He is tall and has short blond hair and green eyes.

Steve is a very friendly and helpful person. He always supports his friends and gives them good advice. He is also honest and always tells the truth, even when it's not easy.

We go running together, watch football matches, and sometimes cook dinner at the weekends. I'm really glad to have a best friend like Steve.

David
