

Answer Key

1A.

1. skyscraper
2. Mount Fuji
3. chopsticks
4. sushi
5. Tokyo
6. Cherry Blossom Festival
7. local market
8. Imperial Palace

2.

Kenji – Japan – Japanese – Japanese, English – Tokyo
 Amina – Egypt – Egyptian – Arabic, English – Cairo
 Luca – Italy – Italian – Italian, English – Rome
 Hannah – Germany – German – German, English – Berlin

4.

1. modern, peaceful
2. Dolmabahçe Palace; Sultanahmet Square
3. Turkish, English, Spanish
4. take a boat ride on the Bosphorus; explore ancient ruins
5. friendly, welcoming
6. 29 October Republic Day

6.

- |            |                |
|------------|----------------|
| 1. Russian | 5. take a trip |
| 2. explore | 6. take photos |
| 3. museum  | 7. welcoming   |
| 4. local   | 8. cultural    |

1B.

1. Sora is from Japan.
2. She is Japanese.
3. The capital of Japan is Tokyo.
4. Tourists can explore ancient ruins in Kyoto, visit an art museum, and enjoy peaceful gardens.
5. They can taste sushi.
6. Mount Fuji is the symbol of the country.

1C.

1. b.Hello! Where are you from?
2. d.What is the capital of Japan?
3. a.What can I do in Japan?
4. c.What festival can I join?

3. Sample speech

Hello! My name is Antonio. I'm from Italy and I'm Italian. My native language is Italian, and I can speak English. The capital of Italy is Rome. It is an amazing, ancient destination with rich history and cultural heritage. The location is close to a river, and the landscape is peaceful and magnificent. Italy is worth seeing!

5. Sample sentences

Hello! My name is Pelin. I am Turkish and I am from Türkiye. The capital of Türkiye is Ankara; it is a modern and peaceful city with government offices and museums. I live in İzmir. İzmir is a modern and peaceful city in Türkiye. It is famous for Konak Square and its Clock Tower. Visitors can explore the ancient ruins of Ephesus, which is close to İzmir. People can stroll through the Kemeraltı local market and taste delicious local food.

7.

1 F, 2 T, 3 T, 4 F, 5 T, 6 F, 7 T, 8 F.

Tapescript 9.1.1

Sofia: Hello! My name is Sofia. I'm from Spain. I am Spanish. My native language is Spanish, but I can also speak English. The capital of Spain is Madrid.

Kenji: Nice to meet you, Sofia! I am Kenji. I'm from Japan. I am Japanese. My native language is Japanese, and I can also speak English. The capital of Japan is Tokyo.

Amina: Hi everyone! I am Amina. I'm from Egypt. I am Egyptian. I can speak Arabic and English. The capital of Egypt is Cairo.

Luca: Hello! My name is Luca. I'm from Italy. I am Italian. I can speak Italian, and a little English. The capital of Italy is Rome.

Hannah: Hi! I'm Hannah. I'm from Germany. I am German. I can speak German and English. The capital of Germany is Berlin.

Sofia: Wow! We are from different countries, but we can all speak English.

Kenji: Yes! English helps us communicate.

Amina: And it's nice to learn about each other's countries and capitals.

Hannah: Exactly! We all share our languages and cultures.

Luca: That's true! Now we are friends from Spain, Japan, Egypt, Italy, and Germany.

Tapescript 9.1.2

Hello! I am Aziza. I am Uzbek and I am from Uzbekistan. I can speak Uzbek, Russian and English. The capital is Tashkent. My country has a rich history on the Silk Road. In our cities, tourists can explore ancient ruins, a palace, a square and an art museum. Citizens create traditional carpet art at the local market. The architecture is fascinating and the monuments are magnificent. For natural beauty, visitors can take a trip to a valley and a desert, or go to a national park close to a river and a lake. You can take photos and go sightseeing at many tourist spots. Citizens are welcoming and friendly. Uzbekistan is worth seeing for its cultural heritage and incredible landscape.