Welcome to my kitchen. Today, we are making a special international dish: A Mushroom Omelette. First, look at the ingredients. I always use fresh mushrooms and organic eggs. I never use frozen vegetables. Now, watch me carefully. I am cracking the eggs into a bowl. Now, I am adding a little salt. Usually, I cook this with olive oil, but today I am using butter because it tastes better. Finally, I am stirring the mixture gently. Can you hear that sound? Now, I am pouring it into the hot pan. The omelette is rising in the pan right now, so I am turning down the heat. I usually flip the omelette high in the air, but today I am using a spatula to be safe. Most chefs serve this dish with toast, but currently, I am plating it with fresh spinach. Look at the texture; it smells absolutely delicious and buttery! Now I am taking my first bite... mmm, it tastes amazing!
