Welcome back to City Voices! Today, we're asking people one simple question: If you were a superhero, what would you do?

Guest 1: That's easy. If I were a superhero, I would have the power of teleportation. I hate traffic! If I could teleport, I would have breakfast in Paris and go to work in New York.

Guest 2 : Hmm. I think I'd choose healing. If I had the power to heal, I would visit every hospital in the city. I would cure everyone just by touching them. That would be amazing.

Guest 3: I'd want to be invisible. Sometimes I feel shy. If I were invisible, I could help people without them knowing. Like, I would stop bad guys, but nobody would ever see me!

Guest 4: Oh, definitely time travel. If I could travel back in time, I would fix my biggest mistakes. I would also go back to see how the Pyramids were built. Imagine the history lessons I could teach!

Guest 5: I would choose mind reading. It sounds scary, but think about it. If I knew what people were thinking, I could understand them better. I would know if someone was secretly sad and I would cheer them up.
